

We Are Messengers

NICK LEFORCE

We may leave
our footprints
on the earth,
but we walk
in heaven.

Our light
shines farther
than our own vision,
our words sink deeper than our own wisdom.

We teach what you have lived before does not determine who you may become.

And we are learning
to follow a simple truth of the heart.

What we see in others,
we awaken in ourselves.

We become what we give to the world.
